AMR Announces New Website

Lexington, KY - July 16, 2009 -- AMR Management Services (AMR) is excited to announce the launch of a new website at www.amrms.com. The new website is a hub for resources and information about AMR and includes a new blog section where visitors can stay up to date on trends and changes in the association world.

The redesigned website highlights AMR's 4 core areas of service and illustrates AMR's experience and professionalism to visitors and potential clients. In addition to this information, visitors to the site can learn about AMR employees, submit RFP's for association management services and read testimonials from current client partners.

"Our new website is a great example of AMR's dedication to quality, excellence and innovation. We are excited to have our new website up and we are confident that the addition of a blog and the more user-friendly layout will be appealing and informative for our current and prospective clients" said John Ruffin, AMR President and CEO.

In addition to the new website AMR is entering the world of social media by joining the LinkedIn and Twitter communities. You can find links to our AMR profiles on these sites on our homepage.

AMR is a full-service association management company headquartered in Lexington, KY. AMR was one of the first Association Management Companies (AMC) to receive charter accreditation status by the AMC Institute.
