Page Smith, Human Resource Manager, Offinger Management Company recently earned certification as a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR).

The certification, awarded by the HR Certification Institute, signifies that Page possesses the theoretical knowledge and practical experience in human resource management necessary to pass a rigorous examination demonstrating a mastery of the body of knowledge in the field.

“Certification as a human resource professional clearly demonstrates a commitment to personal excellence and to the human resource profession”, said Mary Power, CAE, Executive Director of the HR Certification Institute.

To become certified, an applicant must pass a comprehensive examination and demonstrate a strong background of professional human resource experience.

To maintain certification, a human resource professional must accumulate professional development hours each three years based on their involvement in human resource management, continuing education and the profession.

The HR Certification Institute is the credentialing body for human resource professionals and is affiliated with the Society for Human Resource Management
